

The superintendent may employ administrative assistants designated for supervision of work in defined areas. The assistants shall be given term contracts of employment similar to that of the superintendent. The assistants shall perform such duties as are delegated by the superintendent and shall be responsible to the superintendent.