

Staff members are prohibited from soliciting and accepting gifts or other inducements of significant value from sales representatives or other groups who wish to do business with the school district.

Staff members are prohibited from financially obligating the district in any manner without properly approved purchasing authority. A staff member who procures goods and/or services contrary to district policy and procedures is personally responsible for the obligations incurred.